Memorandum of Understanding

Between

Department of Bodo, Sapatgram College

And

Bhelakoba pt-1 Village

(For the Adoption of Village)

Date-05/12/2022 venue:-2245 no Bhelakoba Gudi foraishali

The Bhelakoba Village is under the subdivision of Porbatjhora in district of Kokrajhar situated to the southern part of the district. Most of the people living in the village belonged to Bodo Community who are still under developed and unaware of health, education, gender aquality, hygiene and environmental issues as well as they are not even free from superstition belief in the society. For that purpose the department of Bodo of Sapatgram College signed a MOU with Bhelakoba Village. Before the signing of the MOU the Bodo department explained its objectives.

Objectives of the MOU:- (1) To bring awareness on health, education, gender equality, hygiene and environmental issues.

(2) To keep them informed how to create the congenial atmosphere in the society.

Outcome of the MOU:- (1) The villagers will be benefited from this programme as it was indicated by the feedback.

(2) The programme also serves to eradicate some social issues in the village.

After the ceremony of MoU signed between the Department of Bodo and Gaonbura of Bhelakoba Village, the villagers welcomed the move. The villagers expressed that the MoU signed was not only excellent, nice and informative but also cooperative. They urged the department of Bodo for close contact with the village in near future.
