

SPECIAL LECTURE ON

Freedom Movement of Bharat and its Relevance in Present Day

'ভাৰতৰ স্বাধীনতা আন্দোলন আৰু বৰ্তমান সময়ত ইয়াৰ প্ৰাসংগিকতা

Department of History, in collaboration with Bhartiya Itihas Sankalan Samiti, Dhubri

And PTA, Sapatgram College on 23/02/2022

As a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Department of History, Sapatgram College in collaboration with Bhartiya Itihas Sankalan Samiti, Dhubri and PTA, Sapatgram College, organized a special lecture on 'Freedom Movement of Bharat and its Relevance in Present Day' recently. The keynote speaker was the Coordinator of Akhil Bharatiya Itihas Sankalan Yojana, North-East Chapter, Hemanta Dhing Mazumdar. Mazumdar pointed out that the colonial history of the country has so many gaps and bumps. Commenting on the significance of the topic, he opined that the history of India's Freedom Movement has been a blurred project that deliberately ignored the truth. The Samiti has undertaken the task of countering the emerging contours of India's national movement, he reiterated. While recalling the contributions of unsung heroes of the North-East and the rest of the country, he explained that it was an articulated fact that the history of the colonial period is cloaked in mystery, but it cannot blindfold the scholars from digging the recent past critically. Participating in the programme as inaugurator, Dhubri district president of Itihas Sankalan Samiti, Dr DK Adhikary emphasized that the main aim of an intellectual person should be to redeem scholars denigrated by the so-called Leftist establishment. Academic Registrar of IIT Guwahati, Prof Subhajit Choudhury traced the history of India's national movement and highlighted how the revolt of 1857 was the first war of Indian Independence. Speaking on the occasion, former IQAC Coordinator of Sapatgram College, Dr GK Saha and IQAC Coordinator of PB College, Dr Gopal Barman also contributed their valuable opinions. Earlier, Principal of Sapatgram College, Dr Rajeshwar Prasad Singh welcomed the gathering and highlighted the importance of the topic. President of Governing Body of the College, Prof Hemendra Nath Brahma chaired the session and appealed the scholars to do something concrete in this regard. Dr Giren Roy anchored the programme and the vote of thanks was offered by Dr Habib Fazlul Basid.

Seminar on Freedom Movement held at Sapatgram College

A CORRESPONDENT

DHUBRI, Feb 26: As a part of Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav, the Department of History, Sapatgram College in collaboration with Bhartiya Itihas Sankalan Samiti, Dhubri and PTA, Sapatgram College, organized a special lecture on 'Freedom Movement of Bharat and its Relevance in Present Day' recently.

The keynote speaker was the Coordinator of Akhil Bharatiya Itihas Sankalan Yojana, North-East Chapter, Hemanta Dhing Mazumdar.

Mazumdar pointed out that the colonial history of the country has so many gaps and bumps. Commenting on the significance of the topic, he opined that the history of India's Freedom Movement has been a blurred project that deliberately ignored the truth.

The Samiti has undertaken the task of countering the emerging contours of India's national movement, he reiterated.

While recalling the contributions of unsung heroes of the North-East and the rest of the country, he explained that it was an articulated fact that the history of the colonial period is cloaked in mystery, but it cannot blindfold the scholars from digging the recent past critically.

Participating in the programme as inaugurator, Dhubri district president of Itihas Sankalan Samiti, Dr DK Adhikary emphasized that the main aim of an intellectual person should be to redeem scholars denigrated by the so-called Leftist establishment.

Academic Registrar of IIT Guwahati, Prof Subhajit Choudhury traced the history of India's national movement and highlighted how the revolt of 1857 was the first war of Indian Independence.

Speaking on the occasion, former IQAC Coordinator of Sapatgram College, Dr GK Saha and IQAC Coordinator of PB College, Dr Gopal Barman also contributed their valuable opinions.

Earlier, Principal of Sapatgram College, Dr Rajeshwar Prasad

Singh welcomed the gathering and highlighted the importance of the topic.

President of Governing Body of the College, Prof Hemendra Nath Brahma chaired the session and appealed the scholars to do something concrete in this regard.

Dr Giren Roy anchored the programme and the vote of thanks was offered by Dr Habib Fazlul Basid.

<https://www.sentinelassam.com/north-east-india-news/assam-news/seminar-on-freedom-movement-held-at-sapatgram-college-580361>